Program Overview

- Providing father-specific curriculum in home visits
- Implementing father support groups
- Sharing tips and tricks specific to the male father and father figure
- Encouraging more participation through activities and contests

We have also created a space for dads to come together and support each other through discussing meaningful topics.

Why Join?

Studies show that when dads are involved children are more likely to:

- Have better physical health and healthier relationships
- Feel more safe and confident
- Do better in school
- Less likely to use and abuse drugs/ alcohol
- More likely to stay out of trouble/ lower crime rates
